

Wilson's Wilde

This piece is from the Dowland lute book. Although easy to play, it is a very effective composition because of the amount of variety in a simple framework. Each of three themes is followed by an ornamented repeat; if the themes are treated with a sustained quality, the repeats may be given an interesting contrast by being played with a brisk attack.

Suggested tempo is ♩ = 152.

The musical score for "Wilson's Wilde" is presented in nine staves. The key signature is G major (two sharps) and the time signature is 3/4. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-4 below the notes. Ornaments are shown as small circles above notes, often with a vertical line extending downwards. Some ornaments are accompanied by a small 'p' for plectrum. The score is divided into sections by repeat signs (double bars with dots). The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a 3/4 time signature. The piece concludes with a final double bar line and a repeat sign.
